Based on the report of the expert panel and the discussions of the Specific Commission for Social Sciences 1 in its meeting on 17th January 2025:

1. The study programme “Master Innovative Design of themed Entertainment and Attractions for Sustainability (IDEAS)” offered by Universitat Rovira i Virgili (Spain) in cooperation with Breda University of applied sciences (The Netherlands) and Libera Università di Comunicazione e Lingue (IULM) is accredited according to the criteria and procedures defined in the European Approach for Quality Assurance of Joint Programmes.
2. The study programme complies with the requirements defined by the European Approach for Quality Assurance of Joint Programmes and the European Qualifications Framework (EQF) in their current version.

The following recommendations are given for further improvement of the programme:

- > Ensuring clear mechanisms for coordination between all departments and courses, as well as a defined framework for program governance.
- > Forming an examination board to ensure consistency and alignment in the assessment process.
- > Prioritizing the development of clear and flexible definitions of sustainability and AI throughout the programme.
- > Ensuring consistent exam regulations and a detailed vision for assessments, including calibration across the HEIs. Special attention should be given to the Master Thesis process (proposal approval, feedback, research, etc.).
- > Continuing to focus on the details of the quality assurance process.
