A. Introduction

The External Evaluation Committee (henceforth EEC) examined the documentation of the Diploma programme in Travel & Tourism Administration (2 Years, Plus an Optional Foundation Year, 120 ECTS) offered at the four branches of CDA College (henceforth known as College), located in Nicosia, Larnaca, Limassol and Pafos. The CYQAA official, Mr. George Aletraris, Ms Varvara Georgiou, the CUT student representative and the academic members of the EEC held an initial meeting and discussed the schedule for the day, and clarified the documentation on Tuesday 21st of July 2020 via the video conferencing platform Zoom.

Following that, we met with the College's Internal Evaluation Committee where the College Chairman Mr. Athanasios Christoforou presented the College's strategy and standing, where further quality assurance discussions took place. Meetings were also arranged with the academic and administrative staff to better understand their involvement in the delivery, design and support of the Diploma. A meeting with three students (two of whom were from unrelated programmes offered at the College) where feedback in relation to their experience, satisfaction and aspirations were obtained. The EEC viewed videos of the College's four branches to assess the physical and learning resources, classroom infrastructure, computer laboratories, library, and common recreational facilities.

The EEC was notified that CDA Limassol has a total of 64 PCs in 3 rooms. Currently, CDA Limassol has a total number of 100 students registered on the Diploma in Travel and Tourism Administration programme (2 Years, Plus an Optional Foundation year, Diploma).

Findings

A short description of the situation in the Higher Education Institution (HEI), based on elements from the application for external evaluation and on findings from the onsite visit.

This evaluation is based on the application document submitted by the College and our video conference meetings with the various teams. The Diploma programme in Travel and Tourism Administration targets Cypriots and international (predominantly from India) students with a Secondary School Leaving Certificate or equivalent, aiming to develop a career in the travel and tourism sectors or to progress on to further studies. The programme is positioned as an opportunity for students to prepare for employment and development in Travel and Tourism industries, by equipping students with a range of skills and knowledge.

During the evaluation meeting, the Internal Evaluation Committee of the College provided an overview of the institution in general and an insight into the quality assurance practice for the programme under evaluation. The committee indicates that a College Quality Assurance Mechanisms document has been drawn up and adhered to. The EEC panel was informed that the College has to comply with the law in the submission of a Internal Quality Assurance report every 3 years. It appears that the allocation of teaching is organised efficiently based on widely accepted ECTS-related workload standards. The three students interviewed were satisfied with the College's overall provision. An effective administrative structure supports the competent delivery of student welfare.

There is relevant Travel and Tourism expertise in the teaching team for the programme and appears to have sufficient research output for a vocational programme. It is also evident that several members of staff are Travel and Tourism practitioners with relevant experience. Some members of the teaching team have a good insight of the Tourism and Hospitality industry and they are involved in the industry and other related activities.

From an internal point of view, the College's Internal (Educational) Quality Assurance mechanism has been documented to a satisfactory degree. An internal quality committee meets three times a year to discuss and resolve quality assurance issues. Processes for identifying academic fraud appear to be documented in the College's Quality Assurance policies.

The study programme could be updated with developments in the industry, as its current content and learning objectives do not always align well with each other. Networking with local travel and leisure companies are in place to provide students with employment opportunities.

The documentation provides comprehensive guidance to the programme proposed. The programme follows a traditional and mainstream approach to teaching Travel and Tourism. It offers a portfolio of practical skills and administrative learning with modules in the field of Travel and Tourism. There are twenty-two (22) compulsory modules accounting for 112 ECTS and a choice of language electives (Russian or Greek) in the first two terms, adding up to 8 ECTS.

The three (3) students interviewed by the EEC were long-term residents of Cyprus (specifically Greece, Russia and Sri Lanka) and had expressed their satisfaction from the academic delivery and support services of the College in general.

This programme of study is currently accredited and was last reviewed in 2014. Information in relation to the programme is currently available on the College's website <https://www.cdacollege.com/tta>

Strengths

A list of strengths, e.g. examples of good practices, achievements, innovative solutions etc.

The College has a comprehensive Internal Quality Assurance document for the programme evaluated. The Diploma in Travel and Tourism Administration includes fundamental academic and practical modules to help students prepare for the real world. The teaching team has a wealth of relevant travel and tourism experience that could be better highlighted in the programme's promotional literature. Active collaborations with the local travel trade and a well organised field trip to Malta (as revealed by a student in the meeting) facilitates the enrichment of the programme; the EEC feels that such opportunities for experiential learning must be sustained and extended.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

Minor changes are recommended:

- In accordance to the above ‘Public Information’ standard 1.3, the following information could be made more readily accessible (published) on the College website: (i) selection criteria, (ii) teaching, learning and assessment procedures, (iii) pass rates and (iv) graduate employment information. These information could have been presented in a PDF link titled ‘Analytical Structure Program of Study’, however, it is currently a dead link. It has been further noted that the College’s Alumni web page was last updated in 2018.
- To augment the Internal Quality Assurance policy as mandated by the Ministry of Education, the EEC recommends that minutes of Quality Committee meetings are filed for scrutiny and monitoring purposes.
- To reconsider some of the subject titles to better reflect current trends and demands. For example, Travel Geography, Tourism Information Systems, General Travel Knowledge, Tours and ‘their’ planning. Key contemporary terminologies relevant to the sector should be included: ‘sustainability’, ‘tour/travel experience’, ‘tour/ travel design’, ‘tour/travel dynamics’ etc.
- Curriculum content for Tourism Information Systems must be a lot more contextualised. Marketing for Tourism as a subject should include the consideration of technology in its curriculum.
- While there are ample subjects that assess students’ writing skills, the EEC recommends that referencing skills and academic writing should be integrated within one of these subjects.

Findings

A short description of the situation in the Higher Education Institution (HEI), based on elements from the application for external evaluation and on findings from the onsite visit.

During the EEC's Zoom meeting there was an obvious spirit of teamwork and collegiality among the staff team. They have been working in the College for many years which assure the EEC they informally discuss the classes and are aware of the content of each other's teaching.

Internal monitoring of the programme is done through the Internal College Quality Assurance Committee (cf. p.332- 340- 6687 CDA Nicosia report) by department (cf. p. 342 – 6687 CDA-Nicosia report) which ensures that teaching & resources on the programme is adequate and appropriate. Additionally, the teaching team meets periodically per semester to discuss the teaching and learning experiences of students.

The 2-year programme equips the students with the digital competencies in several ways:

- Through the virtual learning environment of Moodle,
- the computer labs with recent hardware,
- analogue and virtual library
- modules on professional tools for travel & tourism such as Amadeus or Sabre.

Even though Research is not a requirement for a two-year diploma programme, some of the lecturers are involved in it and a newsletter is published once a year with the lecturers' publications.

Strengths

A list of strengths, e.g. examples of good practices, achievements, innovative solutions etc.

Moodle is provided in English for this programme. Learning materials are made available to students via this highly efficient platform and was enhanced recently during the lockdown period of the COVID-19.

Professional practice interaction is supported by the tourism and travel industry partnership with the College. This is a strength given that many of the lecturers have also a solid experience in the field. Collaborations with the local industry associations are essential to the programme giving opportunities for potential engagements were also mentioned during the evaluation meeting.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

Minor changes are recommended.

1. Many teaching staff have also an experience in the Air Transport Industry which is an asset for the college, therefore the EEC suggests that the curricula should include a module or a course on Interaction between tourism and air transport.
2. The EEC recommends that the learning programme will be updated in the way of reducing the number of Air fare courses from 4 to 2 and “replaced” those with new courses such as Air Transport and Tourism interfaces and a course on E.tourism.
3. A short profile of the teaching and staff team should be implemented on the college website and on the course packages when applicable.

Findings for 3.2. Teaching staff number and status

Based on the documentation provided by the College, thirteen (13) members of staff are involved in teaching the programme's modules; eleven (11) work on a full-time basis delivering 148 periods per week (i.e. 94.27% out of the total 157), while the other two (2) work on a part-time basis delivering 9 periods per week (i.e. 5.73% out of the total 157). As a result, the requirement for special (i.e. part-time) teaching staff to teach less than 30% of the curriculum (in periods per week) is met. Based on the documentation provided by the College, almost all of the members of the teaching staff hold

Masters degrees and Bachelors' degrees, and a limited number also hold a Doctorate degree (PhD or DBA). It is worth pointing out that one of the academic staff members holds a Diploma and is working on a full-time basis.

- The number of the teaching staff is adequate to support the programme of study.
- The teaching staff status (rank, full/part time) is appropriate to offer a quality programme of study.
- Visiting staff number does not exceed the number of the permanent staff.

Findings for 3.3. Synergies of teaching and research

- Only limited staff collaboration in the field of research within the CDA and with partners outside (practitioners in their fields, employers, and staff members at other HEIs in Cyprus or abroad).
- Scholarly activity to strengthen the link between education and research is encouraged.
- Most of the teaching staff publications are limited to a in-house Journal which is not double blind and peer reviewed.
- Being a diploma programme, teaching staff are not required to engage in research. If they do, it is based on their own initiative.

Strengths

A list of strengths, e.g. examples of good practices, achievements, innovative solutions etc.

- Almost all teaching staff have strong industry background and experience, thus, can bring their own professional experience to class and share it with students
- The majority of teaching staff has at least a Master degree and managerial experience. (It appears that only one instructor from the Nicosia branch holds a diploma certificate only) .
- The teaching staff meets at least once a year to exchange and discuss suggested improvements in course curricula.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

- The teaching staff should be encouraged to expose itself individually to similar programs operating overseas through the Erasmus + programs, through exchange, teaching and short-term workshops
- The college management is advised to develop an incentive mechanism for teaching staff that invest in ameliorating its teaching capabilities and performances.
- The college is advised to re-distribute teaching staff among the different branches in order to reduce commuting time. Doing so will enhance branch identification, branch commitment and more academic exchange with the students.

Findings

A short description of the situation in the Higher Education Institution (HEI), based on elements from the application for external evaluation and on findings from the onsite visit.

- The College has enrolled both Cypriots and international students in the Diploma programme in Travel and Tourism administration. The objectives set by the College are well communicated for the students' academic progress, counselling, mobility, etc.
- One (1) of the students interviewed by the EEC was a Sri Lankan enrolled in the Travel and Tourism Administration programme; she expressed her satisfaction from the academic delivery and support services of the College. Although, the other two students interviewed by the EEC were enrolled in the Bachelor degree programme, they both expressed their satisfaction from the academic delivery, the support services of the College, and the fact that their expectations about the College meet their standards and needs (the EEC notes that two out of the three students are not enrolled on the programme evaluated and hence could not be specific and reflect on the pros and cons of the evaluated programme).

Strengths

A list of strengths, e.g. examples of good practices, achievements, innovative solutions etc.

- The College has extensive experience in managing different academic and professional programmes. Moreover, the number of students has increased over the last few years and the College is adapting accordingly (recruitment of new academic staff etc.).

- Personalized assistance is offered to students such as securing accommodation, suggestions for placement, etc.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

The EEC would like to make the following minor recommendations/changes:

1. It is essential for the College to ensure a fair recognition of its qualification. This includes periods of study and prior learning, formal and informal learning to ensure student progress and promote international mobility. Also, the EEC recommends some changes to be implemented in the titles of some courses in order to adapt to today's data (e.g. Geography of Tourism, Experience & Design, Air Transport & Tourism Interfaces, etc.)
2. As the College seems to be attracting predominantly international (non-EU) students, it is recommended to consider alternative programmes beyond the Erasmus mobility (such as the US Study Abroad). This should provide more opportunities for international (i.e. non-EU) students as well.
3. It was revealed to the panel during our meeting that students who do not meet the minimum TOEFL/IELTS requirement for entry will be admitted onto the one year foundation programme. It is however unclear what the assessment criteria and grade-to-be-achieved prior to admission onto the evaluated programme. This must be clarified in your documentation.

Findings

A short description of the situation in the Higher Education Institution (HEI), based on elements from the application for external evaluation and on findings from the onsite visit.

This evaluation is based on the application document submitted by the College, video conference meetings with the various teams and videos of the branches.

The Nicosia campus provides adequate and accessible resources for the delivery of the Diploma in Travel and Tourism Administration programme. The teaching and learning facilities, teaching aids and equipment are adequate and student-friendly and appear to be compliant with the requirements of people with reduced mobility. Human resources are also satisfactory from both an academic and administration point of view.

The EEC notes that the College adopted the Moodle platform for teaching and learning purposes. The teaching team has integrated many of the platform's interactivity functions eg The "Blue Button". This appeared to have been carried out effectively, particularly in light of the Covid19 pandemic.

The Head of Programme has also indicated that the students are trained with the Global Distribution System (GDS) - Amadeus.

Strengths

A list of strengths, e.g. examples of good practices, achievements, innovative solutions etc.

- The various branches of the college are all equipped with the necessary means to deal with multi dimensional student needs

- There appears to be a robust student support system in place as the PR Directors of each branch are responsible for the oversight of student welfare, alumni arrangements, local students admissions and disability students' assistance.
- The College invested in simulation Air Fare Systems such as Amadeus GDS or Sabre which is relevant for such a 2-year Diploma to enhance teaching and student experience.

Areas of improvement and recommendations

A list of problem areas to be dealt with, followed by or linked to the recommendations of how to improve the situation.

The College informed the EEC that the student to computer ratio is currently 1:1, ideally the EEC recommends 1.2 PC: 1 student for contingency reasons.

Based on the documentation supplied by the CDA management (60 PCs in 2 labs with 150 Diploma TTA students) the EEC could not determine the actual ratio of PCs and student numbers, therefore the EEC urge the management to look into the matter and ensure that at any moment in time, there is no shortage of PCs for students.

D. Conclusions and final remarks

Please provide constructive conclusions and final remarks which may form the basis upon which improvements of the quality of the programme of study under review may be achieved, with emphasis on the correspondence with the EQF.

Generally, the EEC is satisfied with the programme, staff performance, and the physical aspects of the campus. Please bear in mind that the EEC was not actually visiting the premises due to COVID-19 constraint, therefore our comments and recommendations are based only on virtual tours, virtual meetings with the academic, administrative staff, students and others. Being quite an old programme means that CDA has accumulated a lot of experience in running it.

The EEC was also highly satisfied with the level of skills of the academic and administrative staff. Although we managed to detect some drawbacks and weaknesses in the programme, these are considered by the EEC as minor ones and can be easily fixed (all are clearly discussed within the document). We have managed to exchange with the management and the staff team on most of those issues, indicating our recommendations on what and how to improve the College programmes 'performance.

The EEC concludes that the programme evaluated is largely compliant with the required standards within each of the five core foundations discussed in this report. The EEC is of the opinion that its recommendations are minor and feasible in order to enhance both student experience and the quality of the programme.
