1. The Register Committee considered the Substantive Change Report of 20/03/2019.
2. The Register Committee took note that IQAA established a Supervisory Board. The new body is responsible for approving the Strategy of Development, long-term plans and annual reports
3. The Register Committee took note that this change was made on the basis of the recommendation from the review panel during the process of external review in 2017.
4. The Register Committee welcomed the change but underlined that its full impact is to be assessed in the next external review of IQAA.
5. The Register Committee encourages the Agency to further address the issues mentioned in the last review and to resolve them at the earliest opportunity as well to inform EQAR through Substantive Change reports if required.
